

F. B. CATE REAL ESTATE AGENCY

In looking over our large list of real estate placed with us to be disposed of this coming spring, we find in order to dispose of the same, we must place a very low price on every piece we offer, and we have convinced the several owners that it is best to cut the price to the very lowest, so no matter what you want to buy you will find us a help to you.

If you are thinking of going on to a farm in the spring it is well to be looking for the right one and be ready to commence work as soon as the season is ready. We have a large number on our list and no doubt some one of them is just the one you want. Come in and look over our list of city property. Let us show you a sample of granite from a quarry we have listed with none better on the hill.

Our office is open evenings (except Thursday evenings) and our team is always ready to show you the property. Remember the place,

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

John Williams, while at work in the woods in Lowell March 14, was struck on the head by a falling tree and knocked senseless. He was alone, and it was not until some time later that he was discovered. The wound had bled freely. He was taken to a nearby farmhouse and a physician summoned.

The Rev. Edward T. Mathison of Brattleboro, who resigned as rector of St. Michael's Episcopal church to accept a call to All Saints' church in Meriden, Conn., has announced that he would abide by the vote of the vestrymen of St. Michael's church, having voted not to accept his resignation and to request him to withdraw it. The people of the parish are much gratified at the turn taken in the matter.

The count of telephone calls taken one day in each month at the Franklin County Telephone Co.'s central office at St. Albans recently taken for the month of March, showed the total number of calls to be 6,048. The greatest number of calls in any one hour, between 10 and 11 o'clock a. m., were from a position embracing both business and residential phones and numbered 123.

A man named Fred Hall went to the home of P. H. Duke in South Barton recently and told the family he wished to get boarded there for a few days as he was fixing the telegraph wires on the Boston & Maine railroad. They told him he could stay there while fixing the wires through that place. He stayed over night. The next morning after borrowing a coat he went away and nothing has been seen of him since.

The house occupied by Frank Roberts in Barton was burned March 7. As Mr. Roberts was going to his barn at 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon, he discovered the roof of the house on fire. Most of the contents of the house were saved. Some furniture was burned, also the vegetables in the cellar. There was no insurance and the loss will be in the vicinity of $1,200. It is supposed the fire originated from the burning out of the chimney.

City Clerk B. M. Hopkins of St. Albans has received a letter from William Matton, 125 Temple street, Los Angeles, Cal., asking for information of any property in the name of Edwin J. Barnes or Alice C. Barnes for the year 1904-5. The information is wanted owing to some business relative to the issue of a pension and Mr. Hopkins would be pleased to hear from any of the towns in Franklin county where property is owned by either of the persons mentioned.

BURLINGTON'S CRIMINALITY.

County Jail Crowded as It Never Has Been Crowded Before.

Burlington, March 20.—Two raids made Saturday evening and the usual Sunday arrests made 43 prisoners in Chittenden county jail, the largest number which ever slept there. Of these prisoners, 20 sleep in the cells upstairs, 12 in the cells in the cage, and 11 girls in the corridors. In one cell four bunks are confined.

Two raids were made Saturday evening by deputy sheriffs Agell and Ravlin. In the tenements on lower Main street known as the Salls block, Mrs. Tucker's place was searched and Lottie Dion and one Charlie McFarland were arrested. At Mrs. Sorel's place near the head of Interval avenue, Mrs. Sorel and a girl were taken. A quantity of beer and whiskey was also seized. One drunk was put in the police Saturday night and another was arrested from Winooksi.

Judge Start to Consult Specialist.

Bakersfield, March 20.—The condition of Judge Henry R. Start of the supreme court, who has been ill of grip, is improving and he is able to ride out. His health has not been good for some time and he expects to leave today for New York to consult a specialist.

The World-Moving Power.

"Had it not been for Jane the Central Pacific would never have been built." That is the tribute of the late Governor Stanford to the noble woman who died at Honolulu last week.

Few women in the world's history have had so much to their credit as Mrs. Jane Stanford.

While Governor Stanford drove the golden spike that completed the line of rails across the land, the woman whose counsel and courage made the railroad possible stood at his side. Afterward, moved by the death of her son, she and her husband founded, by her wish, Leland Stanford, Jr., University. And when the school and her fortunes were jeopardized by the sacrifice of her estate, she and her husband lived in poverty until the financial storm passed.

"Had it not been for Jane," two of America's greatest gifts would not have been made.

And there are other Janes and Marys whose husbands can say: "If it had not been for her."

Many a man had failed but for his wife. That good old Anglo-Saxon word "helpmate," or helpmate, explains many a successful man and his enterprise.

Few men are strong enough to stand alone and win their way. The strongest has some weakness. That weakness must be supplemented by the strength of another self.

Give the Janes their due.—The Atlanta Journal.

Cowboy View of New York.

"You want to know what I think of this town?" he asked in his quiet, chilled-steel way. "Now, mind, I know as well as you that there are good people in New York city. But, taken all together, you are the most provincial outfit that there is in the whole country. You've got so much you think you've got it all. You think that God stopped work when he filled the Hudson river with water and that all the rest of the country out beyond just happened so. Nothing counts unless it is done in New York, by a New York man, except to laugh at it."

"Now, out in our country, we know that New York is a good town. We know that we're all right, too. We think that the coast is pretty good grazing. We're proud of the whole country. But New York is proud of itself and thinks that the rest of the country is in luck to be on the same continent. I'm not speaking in any way in harshness or bitterness. But sometimes I think you miss a lot of the joy of being Americans."

And another thing. A man from out our way can't help seeing certain things. He can't help seeing the way a lot of sheepfaced along in these subways and street cars of yours crowd women and stamp on their feet to get ahead of them. Great God Almighty! I came over from Washington yesterday on the Congressional limited and things they called men pushed their way by women, who were there before 'em, into the dining car, and when they were through add done with their dimers these same critters sat there and smoked cigars and let the women wait. Now, you don't see doing like that out in our country. If that's the typical eastern gentleman, then the real American gentleman is to be found in the West."

From New York Sun interview with Seth Bullock, leader of the cowboys in inaugural parade.
